Mr. Washington
Mr. Wigton

Gentlemen and Members of the Board:

Travel Club is requesting permission to Travel to Europe in June of 2018.

Students have selected a trip that will take them to Germany, Italy, Switzerland and France. Currently there are four students planning on taking this trip.

While in Germany they will visit Neuschwanstein Castle, the Olympic Stadium and the concentration camp Dachau. Venice is the destination for Italy and will include a visit to the St. Mark's Square and the Grand Canal. Switzerland will be a day spent in Lucerne. Their final destination will be Paris including a visit to the Louvre and a trip out to the Palace of Versailles.

There are no charges to be incurred by the school district.

Sincerely,

Jan M. Carkin
